

SIMBARI DESIGN

Architecture, PLLC

LEICESTER VILLAGE HALL

Leicester, New York

PROGRAM:

This project was a façade renovation of the existing 19th century Village Hall. The original Doric columns and porch were deteriorated and past alterations were not sensitive to the original Greek Revival architectural style of the original structure. The design included a replacement colonnade, a new period sensitive balustrade, repairs to the porch as well as new exterior paint.

